The FHCU Kid's Club program celebrated its launch with a free afternoon at the movies for Florida Hospital Credit Union members. The event was held on August 15, 2010 at the AMC Altamonte Mall Theater. Over 80 FHCU credit union members, 10 FHCU staff members, and their families watched the movie Despicable Me while enjoying in refreshments and children's trivia with prizes of two dollar bills. Our members had this to say about the event

I want to thank you for giving my family and I the opportunity to spend a day together. It has been very difficult, both financially and time wise to spend a day out together lately. I really appreciate what the Credit Union did for us on Sunday. It really shows the hospital's mission, "to extend the healing ministry of Christ." It makes me proud to say that I am part of Florida Hospital's workforce and family. -Elizabeth Ortiz

"The movie, Despicable Me, was an awesome choice for this event. What a way to kick off 'back to school', too. Thank you FHCU for allowing this opportunity to spend quality time with my nephews and God-daughter".

-Raquel Velez

I just wanted to thank you and FHCU for a wonderful Sunday. The kids were happy to see the movie and couldn't thank me enough!!

We had a great time. -Denise Sierra

I wanted to thank you again for having this event on Sunday. I was impressed at the preparation that was put into every detail. I wasn't expecting free pop-corn or drinks! Thank you so much. We had a great time and I hope it was an encouraging turn-out and that it will become an annual event!

I have been working for FPMG eight years now. FPMG is partners with Florida Hospital who is a part of the Adventist organization. To me Florida Hospital Credit Union (FHCU) was a place to put my pay check until it was time to withdraw the money. Step by step FHCU became a way out for me...

*I am proud to be a member of Florida Hospital Credit Union it's a credit union; that gives you the opportunity to be the best you can be...
